

OHS Policy

Able Westchem is committed to providing a safe and healthy workplace and to eliminating conditions and incidents that could result in personal injury or ill health. Able Westchem requires its activities to conform to relevant state and federal legislation and good, established practices including Australian Standards. Able Westchem will provide staff with guidance on and training in the identification, assessment and control of hazards in the workplace.

Effective management of OHS risks depends on the commitment and cooperation of all staff. Able Westchem is committed to consulting with staff in a meaningful and effective manner on OHS issues, enabling each member of staff to contribute to decisions that may affect their health, safety and welfare at work. Able Westchem is committed to continuous improvement of the OHSMS through periodic review.

Able Westchem expects staff to comply with its occupational health and safety policies, procedures and guidelines, and to conduct themselves in a safe manner, not placing themselves or others at risk. Members of staff are responsible for the health and safety of staff working under their direction.

Able Westchem is also responsible for providing a safe and healthy environment for its visitors and members of the public who come onto Company premises or are affected by Able Westchem activities. Contractors working on Company premises are also required to conduct their activities in a manner that ensures the safety, health and welfare of others.
